25X1 6. [] - GLC) Talked further with Glenn Wilson, Senate Space Committee staff, concerning his request for information on []
25X1 [] See Journals of 29 March and 4 April. I indicated to Wilson that while I did not as yet have much information on [] our people were following closely the negotiations between the United States and Soviet delegations on the peaceful uses of outer space and that we had, in fact, been in close contact with [] on this. (I had the impression that Wilson felt that since I had not given him detailed information on [] that we were not interested in or watching developments in this area. I assured Wilson that this was not the case.) Wilson said he was concerned about these negotiations and coincidentally with this individual. He said the Chairman had asked him to look into the negotiations which had taken place between the U.S. and the Soviet delegations. Wilson said he did not know whether the Chairman would decide to have hearings on this subject or not. He said he was meeting with NASA representatives this afternoon. I suggested that, if after talking with the NASA people, he thought we could be of any assistance, to give me a call.

25X1 7. [] - GLC) Identified for Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, the beneficiary of a private bill to make certain that this was the individual about whom he had raised questions with us. Mr. Sourwine said he was.

25X1 8. [] - GLC) Talked with Mr. Bate, in the office of Representative Charles S. Jeeleon, regarding a letter from the Congressman indicating the interest of [] in working with the Agency. I learned that the Congressman was not personally interested in this case and had no difficulty in indicating to Mr. Bate that we had no interest in this man. He asked that we give them a short letter which they could use in replying to [] This is being done.
